The Skipton Music Centre Open Morning is our chance to show people what we do. visit the various groups and see for them-

If you know of someone who plays an haps they are not quite sure if SMC is for day to they can find out by joining a group like SMC they can come the following week Skipton Music Centre is open to mature musicians.

Don't forget to bring your lovely cakes for the Cake Stall, any unwanted music will also be very welcome for the Second-hand Music Stall. Refreshments will be available, proceeds will go towards buying a bassoon.

We have been spending some of the money draising events - you may have noticed the Jazz coloured waistcoats. (I must remember my sunglasses for the next Jazz Concert). We have also bought some new music.

If you haven't been to The Bridgewater Hall and heard the Halle Orchestra then make a note in your diary for the 20 April, it will be a treat not to be missed.

You can now read the information letters from Skipton Music Centre online from the news section of the web site. No more tipping the little one upside down and shaking until a mangled damp piece of paper, folded into eight falls out of a pocket. If you have any suggestions for the web site I would like to hear them.

The Friends of SMC next meeting will take place Sat 13 April, 11am. We raise money to pay for music, instruments and subsidise some events. We need your help! We really need more people at the meetings but we realise people have commitments - for the Open Morning we have produced a map showing where the groups can be found, there is also a form. If you are willing to lend a hand at an event please fill in the form - if you can sell cakes, raffle tickets, make tea etc that's all we ask.
